THE ROGER THOMAS COLLECTION

Moore & Giles is a name that speaks quality and luxury in both the exquisite leathers they produce and in the rewarding experience of acquiring their beautiful materials and products. I was intrigued. Meeting the executives and the creative team of Moore & Giles convinced me that this was an opportunity to create an exceptional group of beautiful and quality materials to add to the Roger Thomas Collection.

Most important for me personally, it has been an experience of learning and creative collaboration that has been as exciting as it has been productive.

I hope you enjoy my new collection for Moore & Giles as much as I have enjoyed creating it.
